We pride ourselves on utilizing the creativity and high quality products among our various prestigious suppliers. We are proud and glad to announce that we are the exclusive distributor for the Bianchi Sanitary made products.

A drop of water shaped the company in 1977 when the owner of Bianchi Rubinetterie, Mr. Francesco Bianchi, started the production and sale of fittings and accessories for the bath. Initially, the target market is the national market. In the first decade of the third millennium Bianchi's family continue to invest in the product, both in the highly personalized design, in search of classic and modern style and customer loyalty. Thanks to their commitment, the company has been able to develop excellent products, very successful in the market, not only Italian, but also internationally.

Two key figures representing HUBER, the only European manufacturer almost exclusively manufacturing thermostatic mixers and valves, by far the Italian leader within that industry. Huber in record time built up a new factory, which was doubled in 2001 for a total of 10.000 covered square metres, entirely dedicated to the manufacture of its thermostatic product lines. According to its constant raise of standards of quality, in 2005 Huber opened an additional factory facility in Gozzano, dedicated to galvanic chrome-plating. HUBER is today more than ever the ideal partner of the best professional distribution, offering a comprehensive, modern and state-of-the-art product programme, at very attractive quality/price ratio.

Certifications. For Quality evidence. Certificazioni. Per una Qualità evidente.

Talking about quality is easy, getting it certified is difficult and requires a permanent, serious and global approach for all product, process and service aspects.
HUBER products are conceived, engineered and realized in the framework of a Quality Management System certified according to standard EN ISO 9001:2008.
The high performance of HUBER cartridges as well as the product and process technologies used in the factory have been approved and certified to be compliant with the challenging requirements of some of the most strict international standards.
The combination and interaction of those key factors and the continuous, passionate commitment of our qualified personnel allow a large range of HUBER products to benefit from important compliance certifications, which not only highlight their construction quality and performance, but also their long-term reliability and durability over time.

Parlare di qualità è facile, ottenerne la certificazione è impegnativo e richiede un approccio costante, serio e globale a tutti gli aspetti di prodotto, di processo e di servizio.
I prodotti HUBER sono concepiti, ingegnerizzati e realizzati nel quadro di un Sistema di Gestione per la Qualità certificato secondo la normativa EN ISO 9001:2008.
Le elevate prestazioni delle cartucce HUBER e le tecnologie di prodotto e di processo impiegate in fabbrica sono state omologate e certificate conformi agli esigenti requisiti delle più severe normative internazionali.
La combinazione e l'interazione di questi fattori, e il continuo appassionato impegno del nostro personale qualificato, permettono ad una larga gamma di prodotti HUBER di beneficiare di importanti certificazioni di conformità, che ne attestano non solo la qualità costruttiva e le prestazioni funzionali, ma anche l'affidabilità e la durata nel tempo.
